Revolted Troops, After Seizing the Greek Warship Lemnos, Demanded Dissolution of National Assembly and Formation of Cabinet Friendly to Entente

OF SOLDIERS

Insurrectionists Are Said to Have Seized Nine Destroyers and Two Warships After Which They Landed Troops on Peninsula Southeast of Athens

London, Sept. 27. (By the Associated Press).—A Reuter dispatch from Athens, received shortly before 7 o'clock this evening, says King Constantine has abdicated.

An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Athens received about the same time said it was affirmed that the king had "decided to agree to the demands of the revolutionists."

Paris, Sept. 27. (By the Associated Press).—The king, who has nine destroyers and naval airplanes, besides two warships Kilkis and Lemnos, has landed troops at Cape Sounion (on the peninsula southeast of Athens). General Papoulas has been sent to try to stop them.

"Martial law has been proclaimed. General Koutis induced the revolutionists to adhere to the revolutionary movement."

Athens, Sept. 27. (By the Associated Press).—An ultimatum from the warship Lemnos, which arrived at Laurium, on the peninsula southeast of Athens, with revolting troops, demanded the dissolution of the national assembly and the formation of a people's cabinet friendly to the entente.

A second ultimatum declared it was considered the national assembly had already been dissolved, and it demanded the creation of a pro-entente cabinet whose members would be appointed by the revolutionists.

If no favorable reply had been received by midnight, it was declared dismemberment would be begun. General Papoulas, recently appointed military governor of Thessaly, proceeded to Laurium to negotiate with the revolutionists.

London, Sept. 27. (By the Associated Press).—Greece is in the throes of a revolution which has already caused the downfall of the government and according to several reports from Athens has forced the unhappy Constantine to abdicate in favor of the crown prince, thus losing his throne for the second time in five years.

The revolutionary movement, which is said to be led by General Gonnatis, making heavy use of all directions, but thus far without reports of bloodshed.

The insurrection which was not altogether looked for broke out in formidable force with unexpected suddenness, had its inception among the vanquished troops brought from Smyrna to the island of Mytilene and Chios, and among the soldiers at Saloniki. Strangely enough, however, these two revolts seem to have had different objects—the former aimed at the overthrow of the government and King Constantine and the latter at the defense of Thessaly against the Turks.

VIOLIN MUSIC CHARMS MOOSE.

Beast Listens Belligerent in Stream to Man's Playing.

The tale of a strange friendship between a lonely trapper and a large moose through the common language of music has been brought back from the Stoney river territory in northern Minnesota, by Thomas Denley, chief forest ranger of that district.

Thirty-five miles from the nearest human habitation in the heart of the remote Stoney river district lies Churley Lanie in a trapper's cabin, Denley relates.

Besides being one of the most successful trappers in the Minnesota wilderness, Lanie has added with a violin bow and spends many of its evenings in the lonely woods playing old songs, favorites of years ago.

One of his most interested listeners is a large bull moose which comes to the river near the cabin and stands, belly deep in the water while it lifts its heavily antlered head toward the cabin and listens to the violin.

When the concert is over, he turns and disappears in the woods.

Lanie has had numerous opportunities to shoot the animal, but the kindred appreciation of music has stayed his hand.—Chicago Evening Post.

MONTPELIER

Republicans and Democrats Break on Justice Ticket.

A break in the usual arrangement by which the Republicans and Democrats in the city choose the same candidate for justice of peace occurred when the two parties met in the caucus at the city hall last night. Following the preparation of the list of candidates, a committee from the two parties conferred and the Republican committee refused to accept the name of Harry C. Shurtliff, one of the Democratic nominees. The Democrats accordingly nominated a full ticket of fifteen Democrats, while the Republicans nominated ten Republicans and five Democrats. The Republican nominees are J. G. Brown, H. L. Farwell, Henry Holt, Marshall L. Wood, J. H. Gowley, Edward H. Deavitt, A. G. Eaton, E. M. Harvey, E. B. Gilbert and Lucia B. Bliss, Republicans; T. E. Callaghan, Burton Bailey, P. S. Howes, C. H. Reagan and Henry T. Frenier, Democrats.

The Democratic nominees were T. E. Callaghan, B. E. Bailey, H. C. Shurtliff, P. D. Howes, C. H. Reagan, H. T. Frenier, J. S. Haley, George F. Luckey, J. P. Gallagher, M. F. McGuire, H. J. Volholm, P. J. Jerome, Miss Fanny Knapp and Mrs. Agnes Powers.

Last year the ticket approved by both parties contained the names of nine Republicans and six Democrats. This year it is stated by J. P. Gallagher, chairman of the Democratic city committee, who presided last night at the Democratic caucus, that the Republicans would allow only four Democratic candidates and finally allowed five without the name of Mr. Shurtliff.

The Democrats would not accept this ticket. Charles H. Fuller acted as secretary for the Democrats. About ten Democrats attended.

In the Republican caucus, J. H. Gowley presided with Alexander Hall as secretary. About fifteen attended. They re-elected the city committee with J. H. Gowley as chairman, J. C. Callaghan, Alexander Hall, W. F. Cory, E. B. Gilbert. One vacancy is left by the resignation of Charles McKenna.

The committee was given the power to fill any vacancy. Mr. Gallagher stated to-day that the Democratic committee had asked Mason S. Stone to withdraw as the Democratic nominee for city representative. The Democrats have no candidate in the primaries but the name of Mr. Stone, the Republican nominee, was written in on nine ballots, a higher number than received by any Democrat. Mr. Stone stated that he would take the matter up with his friends and notify the committee later, it is stated by Mr. Gallagher.

Chairman Gowley stated in regard to the break in the arrangements that the Republicans preferred another name to that of Mr. Shurtliff.

SEEK $10,000

IN DEATH CASE

Rector Hall Reported To Have Carried Securities To That Amount

WATCH MISSING FROM HIS POCKET

Up Till Now Robbery Was Not Considered As a Motive

New Brunswick, N. J., Sept. 27.—Authorities investigating the slaying two weeks ago of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall, rector of the Episcopal church of St. John the Evangelist and his choir leader, Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mills, sought to-day to run down rumors that the rector may have been carrying securities valued in excess of $10,000, when he was shot.

Until this report became current investigators had given little credence to suggestions that the double killing might have been the work of robbers of a blackmail gang. Although the rector's watch was missing, investigators proceeded on the theory that jealousy and not robbery prompted the double killing.

The authorities expect to examine Reverend Hall's bank account as a step to ascertain whether he paid any blackmail or was planning a long trip. One report circulated here was that he and Mrs. Mills were preparing to elope to the Orient.

Her husband, the church sexton, admitted to-day that he knew the minister twice went to New York with Mrs. Mills, once to see a dentist, and on the other occasion to see Pavlovna dance. Mills said he did not think these journeys undesirable, and he always regarded the minister as a friend.

Charlotte Mills, 15-year-old daughter of the slain woman, resumed school yesterday. She said she and her father did not discuss their tragedy at home as they differed greatly on most of the things in connection with the dual killing.

The prosecutors of Somerset and Middlesex counties conferred to-day on the advisability of exhuming the body of Mrs. Mills to settle the dispute over how many bullets struck her.

The Republican leaders have divided our country's war associates, disgraced the peace, deluded the people, deceived the voters, deserted the wounded, relieved the profiteer, reduced the millionaire's income tax, reduced the excess profit tax of the profiteers, burdened the great multitude of working men and women with a high tariff on the necessities of life for the benefit of the profiteers, whom we already have poverty, misery, discontent, cheap pay for the common laborer, and high prices for food, fuel, clothing, rent, and all the necessities of life."

Republicans Driving People Out of Vermont.

Turning to the Republican party in Vermont, the platform stated: "In Vermont, the Republican leaders are worse than in the nation, for they have been in power longer—since 1854. During that time they have in effect sold their nominations to public office to one rich man after another. They have promised the people everything, before election, but higher and still higher taxes, more and still more public officers, boards, bureaus, commissioners and deputy commissioners, superintendents and assistant superintendents, probation officers and deputy probation officers, inspectors and assistant inspectors, directors and associate directors, trustees and associate trustees, chief state engineers and assistant state engineers, fire marshals and deputy fire marshals, agents and sub-agents, examiners and assistant examiners, delegates and alternates, secretaries and assistant secretaries, clerks and deputy clerks, stenographers, messengers and chauffeurs. They have become so wasteful and extravagant with the public money that they have reduced our population by driving good men and good women out of Vermont to avoid the extravagance and burdens of Republican government in Vermont."

VERMONT DEMOCRATS

SCORED REPUBLICANS

At State Convention of the Party Held in Burlington Yesterday.

Burlington, Sept. 27.—Fully 100 Democrats from all over Vermont attended an enthusiastic convention of their party at the New Sherwood hotel yesterday afternoon, when the platform on which an active campaign for the coming election in November will be based was adopted, and the convention addressed by Dr. Daniel L. Cady of this city, ex-Attorney General Thomas J. Boynton of Massachusetts and James P. Leamy of Rutland, Democratic nominee for attorney-general, who was chosen chairman at the convention.

The convention was called to order by Park H. Pollard of Proctorville, chairman of the Democratic state committee, who stated that the state committee had chosen Mr. Leamy as temporary chairman and George R. Stackpole of Winoski secretary. These men were made permanent officers of the convention by unanimous vote. Members of the state and county committees were elected and the state committee was authorized to fill any vacancies in the committee which may occur. The speakers all predicted that this was a Democratic year and were optimistic for the future.

The platform adopted said, among other things: "We condemn the leaders of the Republican party for carrying on a campaign corrupt to the very heart of it, dishonest morally and dishonest in fact, directed toward the single end of inciting public discontent, of arousing race and religious animosities, and of capitalizing all the unrest that inevitably resulted from the most disastrous war known to human history, and all this after Woodrow Wilson had won that war."

"It was a campaign of hatred, of destruction, of mendacity, of demagoguery, and of Newberyism, shameless beyond comparison. It accomplished the purpose of the men who planned it, but it left the Republican party bankrupt in cash, bankrupt in leadership, and bankrupt in character. Elections can be won by such methods, but government cannot be successfully administered by these methods, and the Harding administration has proved itself incapable of evolving either foreign or domestic policies to meet the needs of the country; it has ceased to be representative in the very essentials of representative government; it has become a thing apart from the life of the American people, unable to help in the solution of their problems; it has failed and failed miserably, chiefly because it has been cursed by the record that the Republican leaders made when they were directing the opposition against Woodrow Wilson."

"The Republican leaders have divided our country's war associates, disgraced the peace, deluded the people, deceived the voters, deserted the wounded, relieved the profiteer, reduced the millionaire's income tax, reduced the excess profit tax of the profiteers, burdened the great multitude of working men and women with a high tariff on the necessities of life for the benefit of the profiteers, whom we already have poverty, misery, discontent, cheap pay for the common laborer, and high prices for food, fuel, clothing, rent, and all the necessities of life."

SIX HEATS NEEDED.

For Red Moko to Win the 2:17 at Brattleboro.

Brattleboro, Sept. 27.—The Valley fair opened yesterday under almost ideal weather conditions, and the crowd of nearly 10,000 which attended was a record crowd for the opening day. Most of the departments were well filled and the agricultural show was about the best the association ever held. Many of the herds of cattle came from the Eastern State exposition in Springfield, Mass.

In view of the activity of Governor James Hartness in suppressing games of chance on the midway, the methods of a few of the concessionaires were changed.

Three races were completed and the 2:30 trot and pace was postponed after Albert A., driven by Knight, had won two straight heats with Merricassin, driven by Gaines, and Miss Joanna Patchen, driven by Fuller, alternating between second and third place. The finishes were close as a rule. At the close of each heat the winning driver was presented $5 in gold.

UNITED STATES
NOT INVOLVED

In Demonstration Against Turks Despite a Paris Report

VICE ADMIRAL LONG MERELY OBSERVER

And Does Not Go To Constantinople To Direct Naval Operations

Washington, D. C., Sept. 27. (By the Associated Press).—Paris news dispatches announcing that Vice Admiral Andrew T. Long of the American navy had gone to Constantinople to direct possible "naval operations," were not understood in official circles here, where it was indicated that participation of American warships in any demonstration against the Turks was not a part of the present American policy toward the near eastern problem.

At the navy department it was said that so far as the Washington government had been advised, Admiral Long was on board his flagship, the battleship Utah, either at Lisbon or on the way to Gibraltar, where the Utah is due on Oct. 3. He has planned to go to Constantinople later, however, but only for the purpose of observing conditions and co-operating with Rear Admiral Bristol in relief work.

The state department likewise was without official notification of any change in previous plans regarding the disposition of American warships in European waters, and it was said that the policy of this government to confine its near eastern activities to relief measures remained unaltered.

St. Johnsbury, Sept. 27.—Passengers on the Boston express train for Montreal were given a real thrill yesterday afternoon, when just as the train was leaving the station a yearling Guernsey bull broke out of the crate on an express truck and started up the track. He took umbrage at a red light on a switch and started to demolish it. The surprised switchman making a quick dive under a freight car. The animal then proceeded up the track and took the highway, which he had all to himself.

The animal was soon captured by several of the express employes and proved most tractable than had been anticipated. JOCKEYING IN COAL IS TO END

Will Restrict Sale and Resale By Individuals En Route From Mines

PRICE CONTROLS ALSO CONTEMPLATED

Interstate Commerce Commission May Put Embargo on Coal to Lakes

Washington, D. C., Sept. 27.—Preliminary steps were taken by the interstate commerce commission to-day to restrict sale and resale of coal by individuals on the line of distribution between the mines and the ultimate consumer.

Back and forth selling has been held responsible for some pyramiding of coal prices and the practice is said by officials to be susceptible of limitation through regulations preventing carloads of coal being resold from one shipper to another after each sale, Government officials interpreted a prospective embargo by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad on coal shipments to lake ports as an additional indication that a great quantity of coal is being piled up there for transshipment to the northwest.

Figures issued to-day by the car service division of the American Railway association further emphasized the progress being made toward making up of the shortage caused by the miners' strike. These showed bituminous loadings Monday totaled 38,804 cars, the greatest for any day this year or in 1921, and only exceeded by six days in 1920. Anthracite loadings Monday were 5,941 cars.
